Viet Nam Premier Gaining

Cao Dai Sect Joins His Nationalist Army In Final Offensive Against Rebel Force

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's nationalist army has been joined by hard-hitting troops of the Cao Dai religious sect in a final offensive against the Binh Xuyen rebels, the Defense Ministry announced tonight.

The black-clad Cao Dai forces, commanded by Gen. Trinh Minh The, once were allied with the Binh Xuyen society and the Hoa Hao sect in a united front demanding Diem's resignation.

But Gen. The switched sides three months ago. He withdrew from the alliance when the Binh Xuyen leader, Gen. Le Van Vien, rejected demands that the anti-government campaign avoid armed struggle.

Now Gen. The has thrown four battalions of his troops, perhaps 2,400 men, to Diem's support and is helping in the mop-up of Vien's battered force of 2,000 men on Saigon's outskirts.

Gen. The and his aides, all anti-Communists and anti-Colonialists, are also cooperating in Diem's consolidation of his advantage on the political front over absentee Chief of State Bao Dai.

The Premier formally convoked a "states general"—an assembly of political party representatives and municipal and provincial officials—to pass judgment on the National Revolutionary Committee's weekend recommendation to depose Bao Dai. The assembly was called to meet in Saigon tomorrow.

In a nationwide broadcast, Diem said the national army also would have voice in the final decision on the committee's recommendations. Both the states general and the army were expected to approve the ousting of the playboy ex-emperor, who has been living on the French Riviera for the past 13 months.

The demands for Bao Dai's deposition followed his cabled order last week for Gen. Nguyen Van Vy, a supporter of his, to supplant Diem. The army refused to follow Vy, who scurried back to the hill resort of Dalat.

Reports of new French support and renewed U.S. backing bolstered the Premier. French officials in Paris said last night that their government and the United States are prepared to "sacrifice" Bao Dai if his removal would promote stability.

Big Money Bills On Governor's Desk For Okay

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Two big money bills are on the way to Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's desk today.

And the bigger of the pair sets up a new plan for state aid to public schools giving them 37½ per cent of the state's general revenue instead of 33 1/3 per cent. It will mean an increase of about $6 million a year for public schools bringing the total to about $51 million.

But that won't meet the budget of a pending "foundation program" for public schools that envisions an increase in state aid from the present $45 million to about $67 million. An increase in the state sales tax from two to two and a half per cent and a two-cents a package tax on cigarettes are planned to fill the gap.

The $113 million education bill includes a total of a little over $102 million for state aid to public schools. The rest goes to administer the State Department of Education and for other educational services.

A second bill would allot some $4 million in emergency funds for money-shy state agencies that need financial help between now and the end of the fiscal year June 30.

Senate Investigation Reveals Favoritism In Foreign Contracts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today a Senate investigation has disclosed an "effort to play favoritism" in awarding a foreign aid contract and he has barred those involved from another chance to bid for the work.

Stassen said he ban applies to Robert H. Pinner, the fired project engineer for the job, Pinner's friend, Alfred E. Poulsen of Los Angeles; the Agricultural Construction Co. of which Poulsen is vice president; and any firm with which either Poulsen or Pinner is connected.

Temperatures Move Into Warming Zone

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Temperatures edged into the warm zone in Missouri today despite partly cloudy skies and a forecast of scattered thundershowers.

The mercury was well up the thermometers last night in many places. Kansas City recorded a low of 71 which was 18 degrees above normal for this date.

Highs yesterday ranged in the 80's. The reading was 86 at St. Joseph on the western border and St. Louis on the eastern line, giving a good picture of the almost uniform temperature throughout the state. Highest mark was 89 at Malden.

Financial Battle Is Begun

Demos Stand Firm Against Any Change In Proposed Bond Issue, $75 Million

BULLETIN

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri House passed 94-47 today Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's proposal for a $75 million bond issue to finance expansion of the state's penal and mental institutions and to provide more buildings at cramped universities and colleges.

Now passed by both houses the proposal is headed for a vote of the people, probably next fall.

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri House began a long battle over Gov. Phil M. Donnelly's proposed $75 million bond issue for new buildings at the state's penal and mental institutions and the universities and colleges.

At the end of two hours it was apparent that the Republican minority would go down fighting the proposal on the theory the construction can be done with the state's present revenues.

Their spokesmen said the bond issue, with the attendant cost for interest, is unnecessary.

But the Democrat majority stood almost solidly against any efforts to change the measure. The battle brought almost a record attendance in the House. On the first roll call today there were 152 of the 156 members present.

The bond issue, as passed by the Senate, would mature within 25 years, could bear no more than 3 per cent interest, and would be paid off out of income tax revenues at the estimated rate of $4½ million a year for interest and principal.

Sponsors said the interest probably would total about $15 million if the full $75 million in bonds were sold.

If passed by the House the proposal would go to a vote of the people, probably in a special election to be called later this year.

Rep. Richard H. Ichord (D) of Texas County said the need for the bond issue became dramatically apparent last Sept. 22 when the State Penitentiary here exploded into a bloody riot.

Some seven buildings, most of them industrial plants, were destroyed by the rioting prisoners.

Ichord, chairman of the House Penal Committee, said this Legislature is now enacting laws to re-amp the whole correctional system to produce a modern program for helping convicted men become useful citizens again.

But, he said, those laws will be of little use unless the state also spends between $20 and $25 million for new buildings to provide needed facilities. He said the bond issue proposal is a matter of life and death to the penal system.

Rep. Robert C. Smith Jr., (D) of Boone County told the House that all the universities and colleges need new buildings to meet present enrollment demands and to prepare for an expected boost in enrollment.

Author Loses Faith In Readers of Books

ST. JOSEPH (AP)—Homer Croy, the author, said there probably is a moral in this but he can't find it.

"I have written a book about a bad man, Jesse James, and one about a good man, Will Rogers," said Croy, who is visiting here. "Not a week goes by that someone doesn't send me a copy of 'Jesse James Was My Neighbor' and ask me to autograph it."

"No one has ever sent me a copy of the Will Rogers book and asked me to autograph it."

Special Look At Juvenile Delinquency

Senate Okays Group To Study Problems Of Youth In State

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A special legislative committee to study juvenile delinquency in Missouri was approved by the Senate today.

A voice vote sent the proposal to the House. The only opposition came from Sen. Charles L. Madison (R) of Kansas City who said delinquency could not be cured by legislation.

Under the plan sponsored by Sens. George A. Spencer (D) of Columbia and John W. Noble (D) of Kennett, five House members and five senators would study juvenile crime and report their findings to the 1957 Legislature.

The study was recommended by a University of Missouri conference on youth problems last week.

Also approved by the Senate was a study during the next two years of the future of Lincoln University.

The former all-Negro school has been accepting white students since the U. S. Supreme Court decision banning racial segregation in public schools.

Five senators and five representatives would make the investigation, aided by an advisory committee of 15 citizens—including representatives of each state institution of higher education.

Sen. Floyd R. Gibson (D) of Independence said the main impetus for the study comes from Lincoln University officials who have wondered what is to happen to the school and its faculty.

Under the resolution the committee would have power to inquire into any problem affecting higher education in Missouri.

The Senate also went on record for making Ft. Leonard Wood a permanent military installation and ordered copies of the resolution sent to Missouri members of Congress.

US Has Agreed To Share Atomic Guns With Allies

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the United States has agreed to train selected British bomber crews to use American atomic weapons.

"This agreement clearly envisages the delivery—in a war emergency—of United States atomic weapons to units of the Royal Air Force," the Times dispatch from London said.

The report added that the actual weapons would only be turned over to the British from U.S. stocks in Europe on the order of the American President, as required by U.S. law.

The Times said according to "reliable sources" the new British-American arrangement "marks the first time since the passage of the McMahon Act of 1946—liberalized by Congress last August—that the United States has begun planning with an ally for the potential use of American atomic weapons by that ally."

Council Approves $686,696 Budget For Coming Fiscal Year of 1955-1956

Chamber of Commerce Letter Requests Council's Action For Sidewalk Improvements

Sedalia city councilmen approved a budget of $686,696 for the fiscal year of 1955-1956 at the city council meeting at city hall last night. The police department drew the largest allocation of $100,090. Anticipated revenues for the year total $686,700.

A breakdown of the budget for each department and use is as follows:

Fire department, $82,166; Police department, $100,090; Street and Alleys, $98,270; Contingent, $56,990; Hospital No. 2, $16,040; Salary, $30,420; Sanitation, $73,240; Public buildings, $16,040; Bonds and interest, $85,880; Light and Water, $51,900; Municipal Airport, $4,800; Library, $22,000; Public Parks, $24,000; Crown Hill Cemetery, $13,000; and Firemen's pension, $11,000.

A letter from the Safety Committee of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce was introduced by City Clerk Winston Ream. The letter called the council's attention to the hazardous condition of the city sidewalks and urged the council to "encourage voluntary compliance with the specifications of proper sidewalks." The letter further urged that the work of sidewalk improvement be combined with curb and gutter projects.

The letter suggested "that an ordinance be drawn and enacted for the regulation of properly constructed sidewalks and curb and gutters in any new development within the city limits."

The letter was signed by L. O. Griffith, Jr., chairman of the committee. The council accepted the resolution and it was placed on file with the city clerk.

Four ordinances providing for the establishment of sewer districts 111, 109, 110 and 112 were read for the third time and approved by the council.

Ordinances calling for the establishment of grade and the construction of curb and gutter on Beacon and from the south line of Fifth street and the north line of Seventh street were read for the third time and accepted by the council.

A second ordinance, providing for and bringing to the established grade and paving with a rock base of no less than four inches after compaction and primed and seal coated from curb to curb all of Beacon from the south line of Fifth Street to the north line of Seventh Street at a cost not to exceed $1.25 per front foot, was introduced and approved.

Woodrow Garrison, chairman of the Street and Alley committee asked council approval for the re-paving of road grade tires. The request was approved.

Garrison suggested that residents interested in curb and gutter construction should get their petitions in to the council as early as possible.

Ordinances read for the first time were:

Calling for the acceptance of improvement and work done by the V. A. Siegel and Sons construction company for the construction of sewer district 105.

Levying and providing for the collection of taxes for the year 1955 and establishing thereon for the said year.

Providing for the construction of a sewer district to be known as sewer district 113 and to advertise for bids for the same.

Providing for bringing to the established grade all of Osage from the north line of 19th thence north to the south line of the M-K-T right-of-way and for the construction of curb and gutter along that street.

Providing for the establishing of grade and providing for the construction of a street of rock base to be primed and seal coated at a cost not to exceed $1.25 per front foot.

Letting the contract for the construction of a sewer district to be known as sewer district 108. This action followed the acceptance of bids for the work from V. A. Siegel and Sons.

Repealing a $500 merchants tax on "picture shows."

Raising the pay of election clerks and judges from $5 to $10.

A resolution calling for the vacation of an easement through the Country Club district was read three times and adopted by the council.

Bills totaling $9,587.03 were approved and ordered paid by the council.

The council accepted the recommendation of the zoning board for the re-zoning of property of C. W. Stephenson bordered by 14th Street, 15th Street, Ingram and LaFayette from Zone "E" to Zone "A."

The re-zoning will change to use of the property from light commercial to residential.

Council approval was given for the purchase of an ice box for fire house No. 1. Bids were submitted to the city clerk and after a reading the bids were returned to the Fire and Water committee for consideration.

Harry Moore, head of the city's Sewer and Sanitation committee read a petition from residents in the Second Ward asking for the establishment of a special sewer district. The petition superseded a previous council action on a petition from Kent D. Johnson, 19th and Center. The petition was accepted by the council and placed on file. The Sewer and sanitation committee was given authorization (Please turn to page 4, Column 5)

Youths Gather Outside Chapel At Services

Fans of Alleged Killer Chased By Police at Chapel

NEW YORK (AP)—The teen-age hatreds that killed 15-year-old William Blankenship Jr. flared again last night.

There were angry voices of juvenile hoodlums outside a Bronx funeral chapel after religious services for the high school honor student, killed Saturday by a bullet of a youth gang member.

Police dispersed the crowd of some 100 persons outside the chapel after a group of teen-agers threatened to attack news photographers who tried to photograph them.

Police assumed the teen-agers, including several girls, were partisans of Frank (Tarzan) Santana, 17-year-old Bronx gang member, who is charged with homicide in young Blankenship's slaying.

The new flareup of teen-age trouble came shortly after civic and religious leaders called on New Yorkers for effective measures to fight juvenile crime.

Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams said on Sunday that the rate of juvenile crime is "alarming."

Young Blankenship, son of a civic leader and fighter against juvenile delinquency, was shot because the gang mistook him for a member of a rival group. The feud between the gangs was over the use of similar jackets, police said.

Bronx Dist. Atty. Daniel V. Sullivan said he will seek a first-degree murder indictment against Santana.

At Santana's arraignment yesterday, Magistrate Hyman Korn denied bail. A companion of Santana, Ralph (Rocky) Falcon, 16, charged with rioting, was held in $50,000 bail.

As the mothers of both boys wept in court magistrate Korn said:

"If you ask me who is to blame, I would say the people of the city of New York."

"The press is awake, the police department is awake, public officials are awake. But the public is asleep and until it wakes up this situation will continue."

The grief-stricken father of the slain boy, William Blankenship Sr., said tersely:

"It's the outward sign that everything here is rotten . . . It has finally got me licked . . . I'm getting out . . ."

The Rev. R. Millard Farrell, a Presbyterian minister conducting the service for young Blankenship said:

"We certainly do not demand of our government officials a heavenly city in which to dwell. But is it asking too much that they give us a city with streets in which our boys and girls can walk safely?"

America Goes Berserk Over Big Money National Contests

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—America today is contest-crazy.

For every person trying to get rich quick by buying wildcat oil or uranium stock, there must be 10,000 seeking to end all their money problems by winning a big national prize contest.

There are scores of these contests going on all the time, and the prizes are getting so magnificent the sponsors are scratching their heads trying to think up bigger and better ones. So far neither the Statue of Liberty nor the New York Yankee baseball club have been put up as contest prizes, but don't bet they won't be.

Remember the dear dead days when college boys swallowed goldfish and men nosed peanuts up Pike's Peak for pure glory? Not any more. Contests now have to pay off in hard cash.

The Horatio Alger hero of yesterday got ahead by hard work. But the hero of the modern contest world is the guy who in a single evening wins a world tour, a furnished home and a life income of $500 a month. He does it by sending in a boxtop on which he has scribbled in 25 words why he likes "Bloito, the new wonder-absorbent breakfast food."

The goal no longer is to strive and succeed. Why save up for a trip to Paris when it is so much easier to win it by breaking the bank, identifying the mystery tune, solving the puzzle, or entering a contest to name a new seductive perfume?

Personally, I entered one of these contests to name a perfume. I got nowhere, and now have sworn off entering a contest for life.

(Editor's note: What name did you suggest for the perfume?)

Your Eyes and Visual Functions

Most everyone has heard the term 20/20 in relation to acuity of vision and many people have themselves been told that they were fortunate in having 20/20 vision. Usually the person who has been told this is very proud, indeed, of his keen sight.

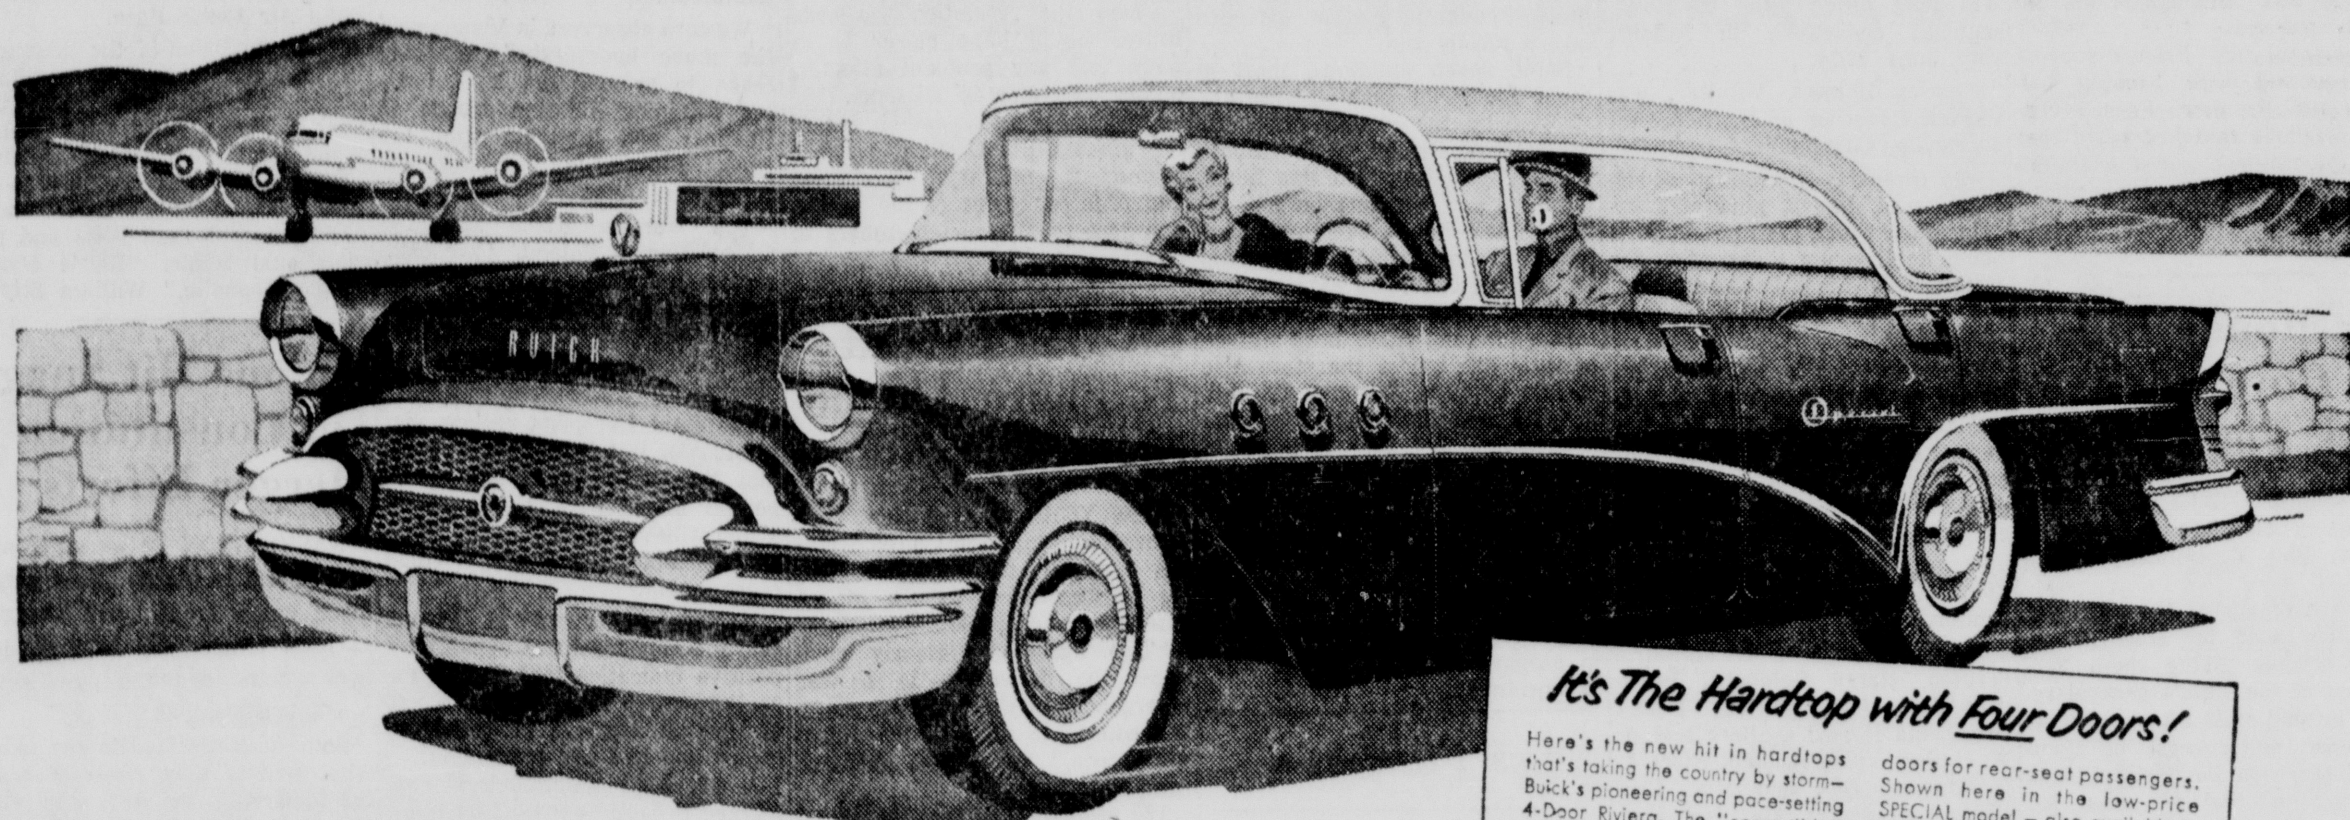

Without discounting the importance of 20/20 or better visual acuity, the Missouri Optometric Association takes this method of informing you that 20/20 vision is only one of many requirements for good and efficient sight.

Modern optometrists make many tests and take many measurements to determine a person's ability to see and to gauge the facility and efficiency of his vision. Many of these are made to determine the patient's ability to coordinate his two eyes in easy, rhythmic fashion.

In fact, optometry is the art and science of vision study and care. It has as its very basis the solid foundation that vision is the most dominant factor of the human organism's development into normal patterns of achievement beyond mere animal existence.

Thus vision care (optometry) can never be a sideline to any other profession. Above all, it cannot be bought as merchandise at a price.

Albert Wuelfing Will Speak On 'Music' at B&PW Meet

"Music" will be the subject on which Albert Wuelfing will speak at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Thursday evening at Bothwell Hotel in observance of National Music Week.

Wuelfing was born in Donn, Germany, and studied singing and piano abroad. He attended high school during the evenings and technical school of engineering in Los Angeles, Calif., and New Jersey. For the past 14 years he has been employed by the Western Electric Company as an engineer and is currently assigned to the Sedalia Air Force Base. During his spare time Wuelfing studied composition and piano toward his B. A. at the University of Arizona.

He organized and conducted choral clubs in New Jersey, Texas and California, participating in choral club groups in various other places. His mother was a concert singer who sang professionally abroad and in the East. He is a record collector of fine performances of all kinds of music. His high fidelity sound equipment, built by himself, makes it possible to gain the full effects of the concert hall in his own home. Music, to him, is a hobby but not one to take or leave at will, rather it is a part of his life toward understanding it better are his studies directed. He is currently engaged in the series lectures of music appreciation in the Sedalia Public Library which is a duplicate of similar effort during his stay in Fort Worth.

The guest soloist of the evening will be Miss Esther Meisenheimer. The Music committee, of which Mrs. Cecil Peoples, is chairman.

Rotary Hears Rhythm Band Of Youngsters

Rotary had a very different but unusually good program Monday night at the meeting at Bothwell Hotel when Mrs. James Jolly, National Music Week chairman from the Helen G. Steele Music Club, presented a varied musical program. She was introduced by Dr. Gordon Stauffacher.

Of the entire program the Rotarians enjoyed most the Rhythm Band composed of first graders from Broadway School. The musical instruments were of a wide variety that might be found in anybody's trash container, such things as tin cans, sticks and similar items. But the Rotarians were surprised to find that the members of the Rhythm Band were really good and could play numbers that they recognized. In fact they would have just kept them playing and the youngsters did give them about five numbers.

Others on the program were Cay Carrell, soprano, singing "Bill" from "Showboat" and "I'm Walking Around in a Dream," accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Carrell; Bill Couglin, baritone, who sang "Sing Me a Chantey," by Wellesley, and "Tomasso Rotundo," O'Hara, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Paxton; Mrs. Bill Hopkins, popular piano medley, "Tenderly" and "Claire de Lune," and a trio from Helen G. Steele Music Club, Mrs. James Jolly, Mrs. Dick Sklar, and Mrs. William Faulkner singing "Liza" and "Peace, I Leave With You," with Mrs. M. E. Austin as accompanist.

The meeting was presided over by W. B. Rich, president, and invocation was by the Rev. Thomas W. Croxton. James Denny led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Guests introduced by Oscar DeWolf were Bill Flemming, guest of the Rev. T. W. Croxton; Ralph Rhodes, guest of Floyd Greenwald; John Pelham, guest of R. S. Johnson; J. C. Alexander, guest of Al Fabry; John D. Work, guest of Keith Yount, and Rotarians Dave Wallington, Russellville, Ark., Larry Griffith, Port Allegany, Pa., and Carl S. Koonz, Moberly.

Roving Rotarians were Charles Hofheins, Clinton, and Warrensburg, Floyd Priddy, Shawnee, Okla., Robert M. Lehow, Baton Rouge, La., Dick Snow, Marshall, and O. W. Wiley, Clinton.

An announcement was made of the interstate meeting which will be held at Warrensburg on May 10.

Burglars Take Safes From Business Houses With Records, Cash

MARSHALL, Mo. — Two safes were stolen from business houses here last night. Apparently by the same gang of burglars.

One, taken from the Darby Motor Co., contained approximately $500 cash and company records. The other, from Counts Produce Co., contained only records and bore a placard giving its combination and stating that it did not contain money.

In both cases, the burglars gained entrance by breaking open a rear window. The safes were carried out by the door, loaded into an automobile and driven away.

An abandoned car and the knob from the Darby safe were found in a wheatfield on the Ralph Hetherington farm this morning but neither safe has been recovered.

Sheriff Paul Piper was investigating to determine whether the abandoned car had been stolen.

Fred Newman, owner of the produce company, said authorities thought two cars were used in the burglaries.

Car, Ambulance Collision West On Highway 50

No injuries resulted from a collision of a car and a Sedalia ambulance about two miles west of Dresden at 4:25 p. m. Monday, according to a report from the state highway patrol.

A 1940 Packard ambulance, owned by Price Alexander, 400 West Cooper, and driven by Nelson R. Franklin, 32, received approximately $100 damage when it was hit by the 1951 Mercury driven by Arthur W. Greene, 31, 340th Supply Squadron, Sedalia Air Force Base.

According to the state patrol report of Trooper Earl Gregory, the Mercury, traveling west, came upon a slow moving pick-up truck. The driver of the Mercury slowed down and the car suddenly swerved to the left, turned sideways in the road and then struck the east bound Alexander ambulance.

The Mercury was not seriously damaged. There were no injuries to the occupants of either vehicle and both were driven away from the scene of the mishap under their own power.

Over One-Fourth Of Inspected Cars Fail To Pass Inspection

JEFFERSON CITY — Over a fourth of the cars checked last week in Jackson, Mo., by the Missouri Farm Bureau failed to pass safety inspection.

Farm Bureau Federation headquarters reported today that 221 cars failed. During the five-day period 778 were checked.

A spokesman said it was strange in a way. People would check their brakes, lights and horn at home, then turn through the safety check with confidence.

But nearly 90 had dangerous misalignment of front wheels. That was the major reason for failure. The second big cause was poor headlights, either distorted or faulty. Sixty-eight cars failed for that reason.

The free checking service moved to Perryville this week. Sponsors plan to cover 27 counties this year and expect some 20,000 cars to go through the inspection system.

Bad Weather Excellent For Atomic War

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(NEA)—Although weather has been a major headache to the Atomic Energy Commission during the recent series of tests, the reverse could be true in carrying an atomic war to the enemy, where maximum damage would be sought.

In fact, lessons learned during the current test when blasts were set off only under near-perfect weather conditions, have contributed to the technique of using special weather conditions to enhance the blast effects of bombs.

The perfect set of weather conditions for exploding a bomb over a target probably would be the opposite of those which AEC has had to wait before unleashing its test devices. If the strategic plan were to detonate a bomb at 1,500 feet above the surface, the ideal weather condition from a blast damage viewpoint might be a very heavy cloud layer 6,000 to 10,000 feet above ground.

As far as blast damage goes, this would create a series of violent shock waves—waves bounced between the earth and the cloud layer—multiplying in force as the waves overlapped. Shock waves would have a compounding effect on each other, spreading the area of intense damage over a vast space.

Even without a heavy cloud overcast alternate layers of warm and cold air have caused shock waves in this area to crack walls and break windows in towns many miles away in an unpredictable manner.

An erratic pattern of damage in an area would also confuse and complicate civil defense efforts following an attack.

The ideal temperature would be as cold as possible for a combination with an overcast condition. The more dense the air is the greater is the effect of the shock waves, also.

The AEC has denied that its atomic tests affect the weather. But in the immediate area of the blast, the heat and rising column of air under an overcast condition could cause local rains. Forest fires have been known to cause rains through a similar process. The rains, in turn, could spread maximum deadly fall-out over an area.

In planning the best use of weather conditions for a blast, the size of the bomb used would be a factor. A hydrogen bomb is really extremely wasteful of its fantastic force because within its immediate area of destruction there is over-damage. In other words you would be knocking down a building or destroying a factory with thousands of times the force needed to obliterate it.

By careful timing of an H-bomb detonation with proper weather conditions there would be better utilization of the force over a wider area.

THIS IS THE KIND OF WEATHER they like for atomic blast tests. Here you see an atomic cloud disintegrating 27,000 feet above Yucca Flat. But poor weather would help in atomic warfare.

Minimum wind is another desirable condition over a target. Strong winds tend to tear the shock waves to pieces and destroy their effect. Strong cross winds at high altitude also tend to break up radioactive clouds, dispersing them and carrying them aloft until the radioactivity falls below a danger point.

Moderate high altitude cross winds over the Nevada proving ground, on the other hand, are desirable for test purposes for their dispersal capability.

Weather and terrain go hand in hand in determining some of the maximum effects of atomic bombs. Broken terrain, a mountainous area interlaced with valleys, for instance, would work two ways if subjected to atomic attack. Certain areas in the valleys would get the worst concussions. Same for the tops of hills or mountains. The safest areas would be on the sides of hills or mountains not facing the explosion.

A city located in a shallow hollow would be the ideal target for best use of terrain to enhance damage. It would be similar to putting a firecracker in a garbage can. The blast would tend to be confined to a smaller area with the net effect on that area extremely severe.

Washington, D.C., for instance, would probably be a good target for maximum terrain and weather effect. Large sections of it are in a hollow and there is a high percentage of overcast days. Pittsburgh would probably be another excellent target for enemy A-bomb attacks for these reasons.

Part of the strategic planning in the Pentagon takes in the weather and terrain factors for a possible nuclear war. Careful use of these factors would possibly make the difference in the outcome of the vital first stages of an atomic war, the experts believe.

Sinking Morale Is Big Problem In Atomic Test

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. (AP)—The problem of morale, both civilian and military, became a major factor in the much-delayed atomic test today.

With the big open shot slated only tentatively for tomorrow, there was considerable grumbling and griping among civil defense workers and GIs scheduled to participate. The latter group, of course, had to take it, but many of the civilians were leaving.

Harold L. Goodwin, test director for the Federal Civil Defense Administration, had a long "heart-to-heart" talk with field workers yesterday and apparently dissuaded the majority from pulling out, just yet.

But one faction from Ohio indicated it was fed up with sweating out the test, originally scheduled for last Tuesday. Another spokesman from Ohio, however, said he and another group from his state would stick it out to the end.

Baltimoreans Pick a Mayor In Gay Race

BALTIMORE (AP)—After a colorful campaign featuring a parody of the Davy Crockett ballad, references to baseball and charges of bossism, Baltimoreans choose their mayor today.

About half of the 400,000 eligible were expected to vote on whether Democrat Thomas D'Alesandro should get a third straight four-year term or be replaced by Republican Samuel Hopkins.

In the last 28 years, D'Alesandro has been elected to the State Legislature, City Council and Congress. He has never lost an election.

Hopkins, a 41-year-old widower and bank official, had the backing of the Baltimore Sunpapers. Four years ago he was the only Republican among 42 state legislators from Baltimore, where Democrats hold a 4-1 edge in registration. He lost a later run for Congress.

D'Alesandro pegged much of his campaign to improvements in the street and school systems, construction of Friendship International Airport and rebuilding of Memorial Stadium.

In connection with the stadium project he emphasized his efforts to get the Baltimore Orioles into the American League and to regain the city's franchise in the National Football League.

Hopkins charged that the mayor had let political bosses mismanage the city's 10-million-dollar program for off-street parking.

The Davy Crockett touch was added by a female octette wearing conical caps and singing "S-a-a-a-mm-y, S-a-a-a-mm-y Hopkins" to the tune of the ballad from the Walt Disney television program.

Besides mayor, the voters also elected 20 City Councilmen, a Council president and comptroller. All posts were held by Democrats during the last term.

Gimbel Heiress Files Divorce Suit Against Home Run Hitter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Caral Gimbel Greenberg, heiress to a department store fortune, has asked an end to her nine-year marriage to Hank Greenberg, home run hitter who became general manager of the Cleveland Indians baseball team.

Mrs. Greenberg, 40, a noted housewife, yesterday claimed "gross neglect and extreme cruelty" and asked custody of their three children, Glenn, 8, Stephen, 6, Alva, 2. She also demanded alimony.

Greenberg, 44, said he was "terribly distressed." "I hoped and tried to avoid it," he said. "My primary and only concern now is what's best for the children. I'm not thinking about myself."

Mrs. Greenberg is the daughter of Bernard F. Gimbel, board chairman of the Gimbel Brothers, Inc., and of Saks & Co. Both firms operate retail stores.

Raid Famous Tulips But Fine Not So Bad

HOLLAND, Mich. (AP)—The fine for picking tulips along Holland's famous Tulip Lane is $5 per flower.

At that rate Charles D. Bedrington, 20, and Dean Soyling, 20, both of Gary, Ind., would have owed the city something like $3,000.

State police found more than 600 tulips stuffed into their car when they were stopped near New Buffalo for speeding.

Municipal Judge Cornelius Vander Muelen fined them $104 each plus costs yesterday and sentenced them to 30 days in jail on a charge of malicious destruction of flowers.

Takes First Trip By Plane to Get Help For Son

CHICAGO (AP)—A 72-year-old woman is taking her first airplane trip today—in the hope it will help bring about the release of her son from a Chinese Communist prison.

Mrs. Addie Rigney has appointments in Washington with Illinois congressmen and a deputy undersecretary of state to discuss the government's efforts to obtain freedom for her son, the Rev. Harold Rigney, from a prison in Peiping.

Father Rigney, a 52-year-old Roman Catholic priest, is one of 27 American civilians reported still held in Chinese Communist jails. The rector of the Catholic Fu Jen University in Peiping since 1946, he was jailed by the Communists four years ago.

Mrs. Rigney's daughter Mrs. Mary Anne Hanley said her mother "is hoping to accomplish his release. She hopes her trip will cause the State Department to increase its efforts to get him released. She always was afraid to fly. But when it came to this trip she did not say she was afraid."

Late today, Robert Murphy, deputy undersecretary of state, will tell her what has been done and what is being done by the government to effect the release of her son.

Diem Receives Full Support Of State Dept.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department, after wavering briefly, reportedly decided several days ago on all-out support for free Viet Nam's Premier Ngo Dinh Diem in the face of French and some Vietnamese opposition.

Special Ambassador J. Lawton Collins, it was learned today, has been instructed to give Diem 100 per cent backing, scrapping plans which might have curbed Diem's authority. New directives were said to have been sent to Collins while he was flying back to Saigon.

At the same time the United States was understood to have requested both France and absentee Vietnamese chief of state Bao Dai, now living on the French Riviera, to throw their full support behind Diem.

This plea reportedly was bolstered by an implied threat to cut off American military and economic aid if French authorities and Bao Dai continued to oppose Diem. The freshly forged policy grows out of Diem's apparent success in crushing an attempted rebellion by political opponents and in rallying broad support from anti-communist groups in South Viet Nam.

Until the shooting broke out in Saigon last Wednesday, American officials were known to be drafting "alternative" plans for changing Diem's government — plans which involved concessions to his foes. Collins helped draft these new plans while here for consultations last week.

The State Department tossed out yesterday a broad hint American policy might even include approval of possible ouster of Bao Dai.

Paris dispatches reported last night that the French were now prepared to "sacrifice" Bao Dai if that becomes necessary to restore stability to Southern Indochina.

False Alarms Interrupt Talk By Editor Carter

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Reports of murder and violence sent shrieking sirens last night to compete with editor Hodding Carter's criticism of white supremacy citizens councils in Mississippi.

The noisy arrival of a fire engine, squad cars, a Navy shore patrol wagon and two ambulances—summoned by false alarms—interrupted Carter's talk before the Memphis Public Affairs Forum.

The forum was held at the YWCA. "It's clear that some people had it in for Mr. Carter and just wanted to make trouble," a YWCA official said.

The series of telephone calls falsely reported a fire, an accident, a shooting, a murder and a riot.

Carter, editor of the Greenville (Miss.) Delta Democrat-Times, said the recent growth of citizens councils in his state is "dangerous and unholy" and threatens to create a "shadow legislature."

The councils were formed to fight, with economic pressure, any move to back up the Supreme Court's ruling that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

Carter said he opposes any

Early Start For Vaccine Talks Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — An early start appeared assured today for House hearings into the wisdom of federal controls over the distribution of Salk polio vaccine.

The Eisenhower administration has thus far recommended against such controls. Secretary of Welfare Hobby said last night she will recommend curbs to the White House "if it appears on the basis of our findings and discussions or developments that the fight against polio will best be advanced by such legislation."

A special government-sponsored advisory committee, comprised chiefly of private medical and health officials, yesterday recommended voluntary controls to deal with problems of supply, distribution and priorities.

Several members of Congress have called for federal controls to assure that the vaccine goes first to those who need it most—generally children from 5 to 9. Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) said yesterday the House Banking Committee will hold hearings on the question "as soon as possible."

Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.), sponsor of a bill calling for controls, wrote Spence (D-Ky.) said yesterday the makings of a national tragedy." Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) told the Senate there has been evidence that the vaccine "was being distributed with favoritism" in New York.

In New York, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said fewer children have been stricken with polio this year than in recent years, but a spokesman said, "You can't draw any conclusions at all at this point concerning the effect of the vaccination program—it's still too early."

The foundation said that of the nine million first and second-graders due to get free shots, about four million have received the first of two injections.

Government officials, meanwhile, continued their silence over inquiries they are making into some 35 cases of polio which developed after children had received at least one shot.

Wrong Man Released; Robber Appears For Man Found Innocent

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sheriff's deputies weren't aware there was anything wrong until Eusebio Espana, nervously pacing his cell, suddenly called out to a jailer: "Hey! When do I go to court?"

Somebody looked into the matter. And, it developed, Espana, 29, already had been to court. Furthermore, he had been ordered released.

Espana didn't know all this. And for very good reason:

Inquiry showed that Rudy Garcia Megiorino, 28, had helped himself to Espana's property slip, and had appeared in court as Espana. When the judge dismissed the charge against Espana, Megiorino was released.

Megiorino hasn't been seen since. He was supposed to go to prison on a robbery conviction.

To make matters worse, it seems nobody noticed that Megiorino's clothes didn't fit when he walked out. With his pilfered property slip, the 130-pound Megiorino had been given the clothes of Espana, who weighs 189.

Burglar Alarm Gag Works on Intruders At Electronics Plant

CHICAGO (AP)—The burglars who broke into the Michigan Electronics, Inc., plant were greeted by a pleasant male voice: "Good evening, gentlemen. We remind you that this place is electronically guarded. We suggest that you turn around and disappear."

There was a brief pause and the male voice, not pleasant, shouted: "Help, police, police! Thieves, burglars! Help, police!" Next came a woman's shrieks: "Call the police, help, help! Call the police!" Then a siren wailed and alarm bells set up a loud racket.

Nearly residents summoned police but the burglars had fled.

Paul Grossi, engineer for the company which manufactures pocket-size tape recorders, said yesterday he and another engineer rigged up the device "largely as a gag." The burglary attempt was its first test.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Herbert Smead, 23, on duty with the Air Force recruiting service, called his wife Norma, 22, to find out if his Army pay check had arrived in the mail. ## Lawmen Fear Missing Pair Is Murdered

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Law enforcement officers intensified their search today for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferri but they said there was little hope that the well-to-do couple would be found alive.

The couple were classified as "missing persons." Although the condition of the seven-room home from which they disappeared Friday night pointed to murder, blood spots led from the front room to a bedroom and then to a carport. Human blood was on a pair of Ferri's slippers near the driveway.

A theory that Ferri, 68-year-old retired plumber and pipe fitter, was the victim of a gangland slaying lost significance as officers delved into the couple's background.

Ferri had been subpoenaed as a witness in the income tax evasion trial of Albert Anastasia in Newark, N.J., May 10. Anastasia reputedly was onetime executioner of Murder, Inc., in Brooklyn.

U.S. Dist. Atty. Raymond Del Tuof said in Newark that Ferri was one of about 100 witnesses subpoenaed for the May 10 trial but his role was comparatively minor—hardly important enough to warrant murder.

Ferri had testified in Anastasia's first trial in 1948 that he did $8,700 worth of work on Anastasia's home in Fort Lee, N.J., as a plumber. That testimony could be used again.

Ferri and his wife, 60, came here about 18 months ago from Fort Lee.

Ferri is the second witness in the Anastasia income tax trial to disappear. A year ago the blood-spattered car of Benedicto Macri was discovered abandoned in Harrison, N.J. His body was never found.

Dentist Is Indicted By Minnesota Jury In Death of Patient

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Dr. A. Arnold Axilrod, Minneapolis dentist, faces arraignment today on a first-degree murder charge in the strangling death of Mrs. Mary Moonen, 21, one of his patients.

Dr. Axilrod was indicted late Monday by the Hennepin County grand jury. The true bill came just 10 days after Mrs. Moonen's body was found in a Minneapolis Lake District alley.

In statements to police, Dr. Axilrod admitted having taken the woman for a ride the night of April 22, only hours before her body was discovered.

Charles Wetherill, inspector of detectives, said Axilrod claimed to have blacked out after Mrs. Moonen accused him of fathering her unborn child. In his statement, the dentist said Mrs. Moonen alleged she had been assaulted while under sedatives in the dentist's office. He denied the charge.

Conviction upon first-degree murder charges carries a mandatory life prison term.

European Terrorists Blamed for Attacks On Pro-Self Rulers

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) —European terrorists were blamed today for attacks on two French members of organizations favoring less French control of Tunisia. One of the victims was in a hospital with a fractured skull.

The assaults last night were believed inspired by a mass meeting Saturday at which 6,000 French residents of Tunisia denounced recent French-Tunisian accords promising self-rule for the protectorate.

The injured victim was Dr. Etienne Burnet, 85-year-old-retired director of the local Pasteur Institute. He was bludgeoned on his doorstep.

Prof. Charles Pignon of the Institute of Higher Studies was attacked by three young men who tried to force their way into his home. He escaped by slamming and bolting the door.

Opposition To Trade Bill Seems Fading

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today most of the Senate opposition to the liberalized foreign trade bill appeared to have disappeared.

Byrd, floor manager for the bill, said in advance of a second day of floor debate there is a possibility of an agreement to limit debate starting tomorrow and that the bill might pass without change tomorrow night.

"That would be three days, and not so long ago we were afraid it might take 30 days," he said.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said he was working on a time limitation agreement. Such an agreement requires unanimous consent. Its fate appeared to be largely up to Sen. Malone (R-Nev.), bitter foe of the reciprocal trade program.

Malone conceded in a separate interview he believes there will be only a few votes against the measure on passage.

A rewriting job done on the trade bill by the Finance Committee, which Byrd heads, appeared to have quieted much of the opposition.

The committee preserved the key features of the bill requested by President Eisenhower and passed by the House. These extend the reciprocal trade program three years and give the chief executive additional powers to cut tariffs during that period by 15 per cent.

But the committee wrote in some additional authority for the President to curb imports if he believed this essential to protect an indus-

Whiskey Bottom Road Has a Few Objectors But No Giving In Now

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—The battle of Whiskey Bottom Road is on again. Albert L. Dalton, owner of a motel at the nearby intersection of U.S. 1 and the disputed thoroughfare, reported someone had sawed down the large sign on his property which reads "Historical Whiskey Bottom Road—Circa 1732 A.D."

He and a number of long-time residents contend the name is a historical symbol, but newcomers say it is only a sordid reminder of a prohibition past. They have sought to have the name changed to Patuxent Drive.

Dalton said he put the sign right back up and if any anti-Whiskey Bottomers return "I'll be watching for them from now on."

try important to national security. It also softened textile state opposition to the measure by making changes to prevent double tariff cuts on all products involved in current trade pact talks with Japan.

The committee amendments were largely acceptable to the administration.

Rescues Sheep, Which In Turn Eat His Orchids

WOODLAND HILLS, Calif. (AP)—O. H. Wilkins recommends an orchid diet for shivering sheep. But not his orchids.

Eight hundred newly sheared sheep began keeling over yesterday after a rainy and windy week-end caught them in an unseasonal state of undress. Their pasture is near Wilkins' five-acre estate.

Wilkins, a lighting director for the National Broadcasting Co., said he couldn't get help for them on the telephone, so he began hauling the nearly dead sheep by wheelbarrow to his only convenient shelter—his orchid hothouse.

"I never cared much for sheep," he said, "but I just couldn't stand around and watch those poor things die off like that."

About half the sheared sheep

died. "They got a chill," said their owner Nick Costa. "It turned into pneumonia and they died."

Wilkins sheltered 100 of them in his snug and warm hothouse. On the advice of a veterinarian, he administered penicillin with his orchid feeder syringe.

The still-wobbly 100 perked up, looked around and began to munch—on Wilkins' rare orchids. He said some of the plants were worth more apiece than the sheep. Between the drugs and diet, however, they were soon revived.

Costa said the 400 who died were trucked away to a rendering plant.

Now Mercury Montclair "Dream Car" styling in America's lowest-silhouette 4-door sedan

The same beauty that has made the Mercury Montclair hardtop Coupe one of the year's hottest cars is now available in a 4-door model.

The Montclair hardtop Coupe has been called America's most beautiful car. Many bought it on sight. Many others wanted to buy it. But they had big families. They wanted the beauty of the Montclair but needed convenience of a four-door model.

Now these people can have their cake and eat it too. For this popular Montclair is now also available as a distinctive 4-door sedan. And not one single inch of the original Mercury Montclair beauty has been sacrificed in this new model.

The new 4-door model still has that low, ultra-smart silhouette—only 58 3/4 inches high. The lines are long and clean—uncluttered by bric-a-brac. It's styling that is exclusive with Mercury—shared by no other car on the road.

And there's new performance to match. For under the hood there's a 198-horsepower SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine. New features like dual exhausts and high-compression spark plugs put more of Mercury's high horsepower to work for your everyday driving. You don't need a superhighway to use it.

But place your order soon if you want early delivery. This new Montclair 4-door is going to be in big demand. Remember, too, that there are 10 more models in 3 series to choose from. A Mercury for every need and budget. We invite you to come in and see, try, and price the Mercury that suits you best.

There's Fellowship In Music---

Sedalia has a solid place in the musical history of our state, an appreciation of which has been kept alive by many local organizations and individuals.

Commanding particular public attention this spring was the concluding season's concert of the Sedalia Symphony orchestra. And now the Sedalia Men's Choral Club presents its eighth annual spring concert at Smith-Cotton High School at 8:15 tonight. Appropriately this event comes during National Music Week and provides a major contribution to Sedalia's observance of it.

The Sedalia Men's Choral Club is a unique organization limited in membership to 40. Almost every choir in town is represented in this group which is sponsored by 97 Sedalia business firms and individuals. They devote many hours to practice and there are repeated demands on their time for performances in towns throughout Central Missouri.

There is no personal gain in the activities of the Men's Choral Club other than a desire to give to the communities,

A Statistical Equation for Foreign Policy

Americans will find much mental food in the Statistical Yearbook just published by the United Nations. It gives, in simple black-and-white lines of figures, an excellent background against which to consider the present problems of United States foreign policy.

The UN Yearbook first estimates world population at 2,500 millions — more than half of them living in Asia. Although only 160 million people live in the United States, they produce 52 per cent of the world's crude steel (totals excluding the Soviet Union), 53 per cent of the crude petroleum, 46 percent of the electrical energy, 36 percent of the coal, and no less than 73 percent of the world's motor vehicles.

Agriculture represents 51 percent of India's national income. It represents only six percent

A Career In Health Is Worth Considering

The National Health Council has just published a helpful publication called Health Careers Guidebook, which is being distributed to each of the nation's public and private secondary schools when it will reach 7,500,000 students.

High school seniors who are planning their careers will have the opportunity of learning about the numerous avenues in the field of health. It is estimated that there are 156 careers in the health services.

This guidebook is youth centered as well as school centered and emphasizes career development rather than recruitment. It encourages young people to get the best kind of advice but to make

The Washington Merry-Go-Round— Army to Build Subways Under Greenland

WASHINGTON — It hasn't been announced yet, but the Army engineers will burrow under Greenland's mighty icecap this summer and, if successful, run subway trains beneath the packed snow and ice just as subways now run under New York City.

This spectacular project, known as Operation Icecube, is awaiting final approval by the Danish authorities who govern Greenland. A volunteer construction crew of six officers and 172 men, commanded by Lt. Col. Elmer Clark, is standing by to begin the dangerous tunneling through the solid, million-year-old ice. Their work will be supervised by 60 scientists, all Arctic specialists.

Using the latest snow-tunneling equipment, they will bore 100 feet below the ice to build this unique, deep-freeze subway. Purpose is to link scattered Arctic outposts by fast electric trains that will streak under the icecap with troops and supplies.

Greenland stands — a mammoth, stationary iceberg — in the path of Soviet bombers that could strike America from Arctic bases. Actually the island is a huge submerged valley, packed to the brim with snow that spills over the mountains outer rim into the sea. This tremendous snowdrift, accumulated for centuries, is nearly two miles deep at some points.

The surface is a Sahara of snow, whipped by winds over 150 miles an hour, frozen by stark, 70-below temperatures. But underneath, the conditions are calm, the temperature is a constant 13 degrees below zero.

Besides protection from the terrible storms and severe temperatures, the proposed under-ice transportation system would be safe from detection by enemy bombers. Already the army engineers have built sinking Arctic outposts, whose buildings are designed like submarines to sink on an even keel, leaving only antennas and hatchways poking above the snow.

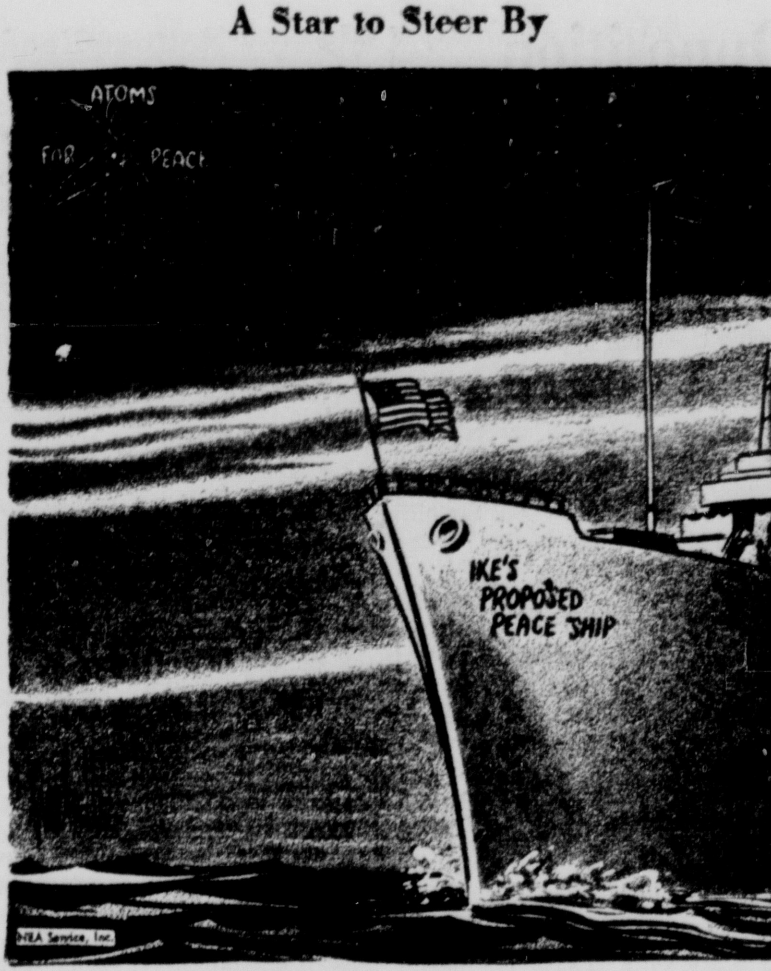

Construction on the Arctic subway will begin in July, probably near Thule Air Force Base. The first effort will be experimental to determine how feasible the project is. Cost is expected to run no more than it takes to build an average, two-lane concrete highway.

But its value may be immeasurable in conquering the forbidding but strategic Arctic — another triumph for American ingenuity.

Hall Gets Panned

Genial, barren-beaned Len Hall, chairman of the GOP National Committee, has to carry a lot of gripes and trouble on his broad shoulders. He is used to most of them, takes them in his stride. But he was flabbergasted when an explosive gripe was delivered in his office by an old backer of the GOP.

He was Sam Pryor, former GOP National Committee member from Connecticut, a Wendell Willkie campaign manager, and now vice president and chief lobbyist for Pan American Airways. Pryor has helped to raise a lot of money for Republican campaigns and his visits are not unwelcome at GOP headquarters — except for this one. This time he came storming into Chairman Hall's office fit to be tied.

As Sedalia Sees It-- Demo Committee Is Jumping All Over Ike's Farm Program

BY JOSEPH A. DEAR Democrat-Capitol Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The Democratic National Committee is jumping all over President Eisenhower's new program for low income farmers.

The committee asserts, in a "fact sheet" prepared by its research division for circulation amongst Congressional Democrats, that the new program largely consists of recommendations made by former Democratic Secretaries of Agriculture Clinton Anderson and Charles Brannan.

The Democratic National Committee also asserts that many of the proposals in the new Presidential program contradict Administration practices of the past two years.

Thus the new program calls for development of "needed research in farm and home management." But according to the Democratic Committee, Agriculture Secretary Benson has: Abolished the home management supervisors of the Farmers Home Administration whose job was to help low-income families particularly.

The new program urges "additional credit for low income farmers" and extension of "Farmers Home Administration services to part time farmers." But according to the Democratic National Committee, the Administration budgets have all cut loan funds. The 1955 budget, for example, cut $6 million from FHA loan funds. Moreover, according to the "fact sheet," the Eisenhower budgets have specifically cut funds for administering the FHA program for small farmers.

The National Committee also points out that the Eisenhower Administration has thrice attempted to cut funds for the Soil Conservation Service. But under the new program, the Administration suggests increased "technical assistance, such as provided by the Soil Conservation Service, to low income farmers."

DEATH OF A LEGEND

By WILL HENRY

XX

DETECTIVE LULL was still alive when the third of the Pinkerton "eyes," dispatched in ragged haste from the Chicago home office, arrived in Clay County. He was James W. Whicher, described in company files simply as "26 years old, an excellent operative."

Early Sunday morning he set out on foot for Kearney, as the old home town of Centerville was now being called. At Kearney, he began at once working toward the Samuel farm, stopping along the route to inquire for work at the neighboring places. It is known that one James Latche, a jackal to Jesse's pack of lions, left Kearney shortly after Whicher did—and arrived at the Samuel farm considerably before him. The mills of the Clay County demigods were grinding.

At 1 a. m. the following morning, the ferry-master of the Owens Ferry, operating across the Missouri between Clay and Jackson counties, was dragged from his shack by three horsemen. All wore woollen mufflers pulled high about their faces.

Their leader, "a smallish, nervous man with a dark beard," identified his group in a "high, excitable voice."

"We're Deputy Sheriff Jim Baxter's posse," he growled. "We caught a horse thief and we aim to take him to Jeff City where we'll get his mate."

As the ferry left the Clay County shore, its frightened pilot looked in vain for the familiar face of Deputy Sheriff Jim Baxter among his mounted passengers. There were only the three face-hidden horsemen and the unfortunate "horse thief," bound and gagged aboard the fourth, led, mount. On the far side, the posse paid its proper fare, rode quickly away.

At 10 a. m. the same morning, the body of a man "with a rope around his neck, nine shot wounds in his chest and head,

GETTING UP IN THE morning is not exactly what the little girl likes to do best — in fact she just doesn't like to get up at all, but her mother insists she get up and eat breakfast.

One morning she was eating her breakfast, just because her mother insisted she must. About half way through she slid out of her chair and went back in her bedroom.

Feeling that she was headed back to bed her mother called to her and asked her what she was going to do.

"I'm going back and finish my dream," she said. "I was just in the middle of a nice dream when you woke me up — I have to go back and see how it ends." — H. L.

"LET ME GO, LET ME GO," let me go, lover" sings the small girl as she plays around, having picked up that much of a popular song.

Recently her mother had gathered her into her arms, was holding her tight and kissing her. She evidently was holding her a little too tight and the little girl didn't know exactly how to break the embrace without hurting her mother's feeling — then suddenly she remembered her song and sang out "Let me go, lover." That did it. The mother knew what she meant and let her go. — H. L.

NEVER HAD THE mother seen her three year old daughter, whom everybody calls Boop, have such a dirty face as the day she came in from out in the yard where she had been playing in the dirt.

"My goodness Boop" said a neighbor who had dropped in for a chat with Boop's mother, "what is wrong with your face?"

The small girl looked up at her and feeling she was being a bit insulted about her beauty answered quick as a flash, "What's the matter? That's the way God made me." — H. L.

The World Today-- Is Ike's Optimism Correct?

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Presidents Truman and Eisenhower both reached a point in their White House stay where things began to look a little better to them around the world.

Truman guessed wrong, and remained in office long enough to find it out. Eisenhower has 21 months of his term left. That should be long enough to tell whether his present careful optimism is justified.

When Truman faced reporters April 13, 1950, he had been in office five years and one day. In those five years, in which the wartime allies had split and the cold war had begun, this country had taken a number of steps to stop the spread of communism: It had armed Greece and Turkey; it had created the Marshall Plan to get Western Europe back on its feet and it was succeeding; and it helped set up the North Atlantic Alliance.

Communists to Enter Election In England

LONDON — Britain's Communist party said today it is entering 17 candidates for House of Commons seats in the May 26 general election. It urged its supporters to vote for Labor party candidates in the other 608 districts.

The Labor party has disavowed Communist support in all previous elections. The Reds entered 10 candidates in the last general election, in 1951. All lost.

Weather Is Mixed Up With Heat Wave Over Central Plains Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's weather today was a little mixed up for early May.

The Weather Bureau reported a heat wave over the Central Plains from North Dakota to Texas. It was 78 above early today at Fargo, N.D., and Abilene, Tex., compared to 65 at Miami. Yesterday it was 94 at Bismarck, N.D. At Burwell, Neb., it was 97, the same as at Presidio, Tex., and the day's top reading across the nation.

Temperatures in the spring heat belt were 15 to 30 degrees above normal with a general warming over the eastern two thirds of the country. Early today readings were in the 70s in a belt from central Texas northward through eastern Kansas into Minnesota and eastern North Dakota.

It was below freezing in some areas of Colorado, Utah and Wyoming. Three inches of snow fell at Laramie, Wyo., as cooler air moved over the Rockies.

Thundersqualls, with winds reaching 75 m.p.h., and hail, blowing dust and a small tornado struck sections of the Central Plains during the night. The twister hit northeast of Lexington, Neb., destroying one small building. No one was injured.

Hint Japanese Youth Died from Radiation Effects of A-Bomb

TOKYO (AP)—A high school student from Hiroshima died today and doctors hinted strongly it was caused by radiation sickness.

Makoto Chiba, 18, bedridden at the Japan Red Cross Central Hospital since October, died of a shortage of white and red blood cells, said Dr. Noboru Tanaka, who conducted the autopsy. Tanaka said the death may have been related to the 1945 atomic bombing. He said statistics show many Japanese in Hiroshima and Nagasaki are affected with leukemia.

Dr. Hisatoshi Miyata said Mak-

Polio Defeat Is Offset By Road Toll

In contrast to the grim news of conflicts, cold wars, aggression and atomic bombs, the newspapers have recently told the happy news of the Salk vaccine, giving hope and new confidence to parents throughout the United States. Another enemy of children, polio, may well be conquered.

Col. Hugh H. Waggoner, superintendent of the Missouri Highway Patrol said, "News of the success of the Salk vaccine is certainly gratifying to all of us who have children, but less heartening is the fact that children continue to be killed at a tragic rate in traffic accidents."

Col. Waggoner said, "Very few people seem to realize the magnitude of the traffic accident problem as it concerns children. A recent study shows that in one year polio claimed the lives of 1,444 children in the 1 to 14 years old age group in the United States. In comparison, 3,938 in the same age group were killed in traffic accidents in an equal period of time — more than two and a half times as many."

"None of the dread diseases of childhood; polio, cancer, pneumonia, or tuberculosis have reaped the ghastly toll in this age group that traffic accidents have."

"The stark tragedy in the death of these children lies in the fact that no great scientific research need be made to save their lives. The appalling truth of the matter is that for the most part, human barbarism in the form of driver negligence, carelessness and discourtesy killed them."

"We cannot expect our scientists to produce some miracle vaccine to rid us of or disregard for humanity. Driving behavior is a matter of conscience and moral responsibility. Our driving habits must change if we are not to remain a nation of child killers."

Milton Overstreet Wants Pettis Youth To Visit Jefferson City

The Missouri legislature in Jefferson City will be a busy place this week and up until May 13, according to Pettis County Representative Milt Overstreet who was home for the weekend.

He states he is anxious to have Pettis County teachers and school children visit the State Capitol before the recess, May 13, and would appreciate being contacted in advance of their arrival so he can make arrangements to see they get full benefits of such an educational visit which is being afforded many other school children from other counties.

Rep. Overstreet can be contacted by telephone at 6-2351 Jefferson City or Room 404 State Capitol building.

Red Sox Need Williams Who Is Relaxing

By ED WYNN
The Associated Press

If Ted Williams was causing base hits around the American League instead of reeling in the big ones off the Florida keys these days, Boston's Red Sox might be a lot better off. He's having a good time, but they're in sixth place in the American League.

After a fast start, when they were 6-1 and in first place by April 20, the Red Sox now have trailed off to lose 10 of their last 12, including five in a row.

They've been batting a puny .180 through the slump, getting shut out four times en route.

Jackie Jensen provided what little power the Red Sox mustered yesterday while losing their fifth straight. He homered with none on while the Red Sox ran afoul of Cleveland's Early Wynn. The Indians won 4-2, retaining first place.

Wynn, a 23-game winner last season, grabbed his first victory of the season. Recovered from an attack of bronchial pneumonia, he scattered six hits. Dave Pope hit a three-run homer in the first.

Detroit kept the pace, a half game back of the Indians, by whipping the New York Yankees 7-1. The Yanks, who were tied for second with the Tigers and Chicago White Sox at the day's start, fell off to fourth. The White Sox, idle, leveled off at third.

Washington blasted Kansas City 12-1 in the only other A.L. game.

In the National, Brooklyn kept its fantastic pace, widening its lead to six games as Carl Furillo riddled his eighth home run into the left field stands to beat Milwaukee's Braves 2-0 in 12 innings. That pushed the Braves into fourth with Chicago's Cubs leaping into second on a 2-1 victory at Philadelphia after wrapping up a 4-2 decision by completing a suspended Sunday game.

Pittsburgh's Bob Purkey had no trouble with St. Louis, beating the Cardinals 5-1 in the only other N.L. game.

Veteran Steve Gromek won for Detroit. The 35-year-old right-hander breezed through with a six-hitter. The Tigers got eight hits, including Jim Delsing's home run and a two-run double by Ferris Fain, off four Yank pitchers starting with loser Bob Wiesler.

Until Furillo whacked his shot, Gene Conley looked as invincible as ever against the Brooks. He had allowed but three hits, fanning eight and walking six in a duel with Carl Erskine. The Dodgers ace won his fourth without defeat.

The Cardinals got nowhere against Purkey, who won his second straight by spacing seven hits. The lone run against him was unearned while his mates clubbed Harvey Haddix for 11 of their 14 hits.

Yankees Have a Stopper For League Race In Bob Turley

NEW YORK (AP)—After watching Bullet Bob Turley spin his fourth straight victory at the expense of the Detroit Tigers, the Yankees are confident now that they have the "stopper" who will keep them in the American League race all the way.

In addition to the blinding speed he exhibited for Baltimore last year, the powerful young right-hander has developed a curve and change-up under the patient coaching of Jim Turner which remind veteran observers of Bobby Feller his palmist days.

Also, while his control has improved markedly over last season, Turley has retained just enough of his "wildness" to keep the batters loose up there and prevent their taking a toehold. That, incidentally, always has been one of the secrets of Feller's success. There never was a time that Bobby couldn't throw a ball through a knob when he wanted to.

In his most recent four-hit effort against the Tigers, Turley isured only four passes. This compared to the 10 he put on base in his earlier one-hitter against the Chicago White Sox. Turley's two other victims were Boston and Baltimore, each set down with five hits. In 36 innings to this point, he has fanned 33 and given up only seven runs.

Turner, the club's gifted hill coach, devoted the spring to teaching Turley two things, to snap a curve across the plate and to conceal his pitches. He also emphasized to the young man that he would not need to try to pitch a no-hitter every game as he did at Baltimore, where he had a 14-5 record.

"I think maybe that's the biggest thing that's happened to me," he says. "In three of the four games I've started these fellows

Moore Earns Marciano Bout By His Win

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore may well have earned a shot at Rocky Marciano and his world heavyweight title.

Ageless Archie last night met and whipped the No. 1 contender, Nino Valdes of Cuba, in a 15-rounder.

Sitting at ringside was Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, who said that yes indeed, the 38-year-old Moore deserved a chance to meet Marciano.

Gibson said the match would probably be scheduled for September in New York, provided, of course, Rocky disposes of England's Don Cockell in San Francisco May 16.

It was a repeat victory for Moore over Valdes and while Archie had aged two years since that meeting, he didn't show it.

And the only evidence of a heart ailment was simply that Moore had more than enough heart to take the best that Valdes had to offer and then dish out more himself.

Moore weighed 196½, the heaviest in a career in the ring that stretches back 18 years. Valdes weighed 209½.

The added poundage didn't handicap Moore.

Referee Jimmy Braddock, the old time ex-champion of the heavies, gave Archie eight rounds, Valdes five and called two even. One round was taken away from each fighter for hitting low.

Most everyone at ringside thought Moore earned the decision. But some thought it was much closer.

There were no knockdowns, but the estimated 10,000 or so fans who paid $102,608—a figure given out by the promoter, Jack Kearns—saw a match that was viciously fought.

Valdes fought the last two rounds with his left eye closed tight. Archie puffed it in the sixth and just before the 13th ended it went completely shut.

It probably cost him the fight, because Archie poured on the coal in the final two rounds to win.

Valdes was furious at the decision. He faked a faint in his corner, sprawling out on the canvas. His manager, Bobby Gleason, yelled "burglary."

The ninth round was perhaps the best. Valdes pinned Archie against the ropes and whacked away with at least 15 punches to the head and body. Moore, his lip cut and bleeding, finally fought his way free and was carrying the brawl back to Nino at the bell.

Famous Big Ben Clock Stopped For Repairs After Over a Century

LONDON (AP)—Big Ben is going to take a rest after having taken note of each passing hour for more than a century.

The great four-faced clock high in one of the towers of the Houses of Parliament is going to be stopped for major repairs late this month. Its voice, the deep boom of its 15-ton bell, is familiar around the world because it is heard daily in introducing British Broadcasting Corp. programs.

Big Ben's voice will be silent about two months. Another thoroughly masculine clock, Big Tom in St. Paul's Cathedral, will take over the radio programs temporarily.

Big Ben is 101 years old. The overhaul on the clock and its tower is a major engineering operation which will cost about $112,000.

Parents Seem Afraid

MONTREAL, Que. (AP) — Only about 530 youngsters were brought to city clinics yesterday on the first day of free Salk vaccine inoculations. Officials had hoped to process 5,000 a day. They described the turnout as disappointing and speculated that polio cases in the United States following inoculations had frightened parents.

Goal of Four Years' Work...
Two Green Ridge Boys Win
Coveted State FFA Honors

ROBERT UPTON

GEORGE BUCHHOLZ

By Lyman Kaiser

Two Green Ridge members of the Future Farmers of America joined the ranks of those awarded State Farmer Degrees. They are George Buchholz and Robert Upton.

Only two per cent of the members in Missouri can receive these degrees. They were awarded April 22 at Jesse Hall Auditorium on the University of Missouri campus. The awards climaxed four years of hard work for the boys.

Robert Upton began his farming program his freshman year by using War Bonds to buy a bred gilt. He also had ten acres of corn. Using the money made from his hogs, he bought a beef cow and calf in his sophomore year. He continued increasing his Supervised Farming Program until now, his first year out of school, he farms 115 acres of crops, 65 acres of pasture, and 45 acres of meadow.

The crops are farmed on the one-half crop rent basis. During his senior year he bought a tractor, disk, and planter with money made from his projects. He now has a net worth of approximately $3000.

Robert has been very active in the FFA and community affairs. He was elected to the office of Secretary of the FFA chapter in 1952 and has since held the offices of Treasurer and reporter in the chapter. Robert participated in the numerous FFA contests during his four years in high school and attended state FFA camp his freshman year. At present time he is also a member of the Young Farmers Class of Green Ridge.

During his freshman year, George Buchholz began his farming program with a milking Shorthorn heifer given to him by his father. In his sophomore year he increased his Supervised Farming Program to one dairy heifer and one acre of corn. George increased his farming program during his third year in Vocational Agriculture to include one dairy cow, one dairy heifer, poultry, three acres of corn, and three acres of wheat.

He also purchased a registered Duroc gilt to add to his farming program. Now in his senior year his farming program has expanded to the extent of two milking Shorthorn cows and one heifer, one registered Duroc sow and some fattening hogs egg and pull production, and sizeable acreages of corn, oats, wheat, barley, and rye. He purchased a tractor and cultivator during the past year. He has a net worth of about $1,250.

George has been active in the Green Ridge FFA Chapter during his four years in high school and was elected vice-president of the chapter in his senior year. He has taken an active part in community affairs and in his church in the last four years.

Purdum Marriage Back
On Way to a Divorce

HOLLYWOOD (P)—Reconciliation hopes appear to have faded for British actor Edmund Purdom and his wife Tita.

She filed a court petition yesterday asking the setting aside of an order which directed the couple to refrain from any legal action in their domestic dispute for 90 days.

She has filed a suit asking for separate maintenance. Purdom has sued for divorce on grounds of mental cruelty.

There were 1,728 U. S. deaths caused by floods between 1934 and 1954 of which 1,153 came in the first half of the period and only 575 in the second half.
